Rabbi's Message

Rabbi Elie Spitz

Dear Friends,

The Holydays turn our attention to prayer. Prayer is both the expression of our own yearnings and echoing those of our ancestors. Below is a set of one-line prayers that I have composed. I share them with you with the added prayer of a good and sweet new year for you and your family.

Mindfully Alive: Ten short prayers

Rebono shel Ha'olam - Master of the revealed and the hidden,

May I delight in the unfolding kaleidoscope of Your creation.

May I use all my senses to breathe in, feel, and taste, the glory of One.

Grace me with the patience and imagination to see in a leaf's veins my own pulsating hand and Yours, too.

May I connect with each piece of Your creation as family.

May I value those that I love for their precious mystery.

May I respect the differences apparent in others and embrace our commonality.

May I honor those yet unknown as potential friends.

May I listen with greater humility, empathy, and wisdom, hearing your voice expressed in the speech and unspoken words of others.

May my mind undermine false beliefs so as to see the world more clearly, honestly, and lovingly.

And may You guide me to craft understanding as a sturdy staff for the journey ahead.

Walking with You and exuding compassion as Your hands, eyes, ears, heart, and pockets. ☆

CBIU Fall Course Schedule: Something for Everyone

Jews have been known for ages as "The People of the Book". Embedded in our collective conscious as a people are the sister notions that all study brings us closer to our Creator and that learning is a life-long journey. As we prepare to conclude the Torah cycle for 5772 on Simhat Torah (October 8 and 9) and return to Genesis for another year of insight and inspiration, fall is the perfect time to begin learning new skills that will empower our participation in synagogue, expand our capacity to experience God in unexpected ways, and reinforce our connection to klal Yisrael. To facilitate this process, CBI is proud to offer the following classes in 5773:

INTRODUCTION TO JUDAISM—This 18-week course is ideal for people from different backgrounds and with a range of knowledge about Judaism. Offered in partnership with the Miller Introduction to Judaism Program at American Jewish University. First class - October 14 from 1:00-4:00 PM, in partnership with the National Jewish Outreach Program - www.njog.org.

READ HEBREW AMERICA—Levels 1 and 2. Six Sunday mornings from 11:00 AM-12:30 PM beginning October 21.

PRAYERSONG—Spend an hour every month engaged in chant and meditation by candlelight. Meet the first Thursday of every month from 8:00-9:00 PM in the CBI foyer under the inspiring moving leadership of Amy Robinson.

ADVANCED TORAH READING

— This course is perfect for the experienced Torah reader who is ready to begin learning the nuances of biblical grammar and trope. Taught by Becca Farber and Dr. Herman Birch on Wednesday nights from 7:30 - 9:00 PM beginning October 10.

ADULT BAR/BAT MITZVAH CLASS

— If this is something you have always thought about doing NOW IS THE TIME! The year of study with Cantor Tilchin and friends will culminate in a special ceremony in Fall of 2013. Please email the Cantor (mtilchin@cbi18.org) if you are interested or have questions. Classes will begin at the end of October.

WEEKLY TALMUD STUDY—Enter the wonderful world of the Rabbis every Wednesday evening at the home of Drs. Neil and Dvora Spingarn. Learning takes place in English using the ArtScroll edition of each tractate.

Don't forget our Shabbat weekly offerings—Parashat hashavua from 8:30-9:30am in the CBI social hall and Biblical Text Study through a Modern Lense led by Ahuva Ho from 1:15-2:15 PM in our bet midrash.

L'eilah u'l'eilah: I wish you all a year of inspiration and elevation. See you in shul! ☆

The President's Corner

Joel Kuperberg

Thank You

I'm not ashamed to say that I'm a lame duck. That expression is usually pejorative; in my case, however, it is the pleasant sense that my term as President is coming to a close with the synagogue healthy and our community strong. But I can hardly take credit for our success. Rather, we are fortunate to have a committed and caring Board of Directors that has set policy and provided strong lay leadership over the past two years.

I have been fortunate to work with a great Executive Board. Our Executive VP, Marissa Waldman has worked with our professional and office staff on team building. As Secretary, Cheryl Ezra has faithfully recorded the Board's deliberations and actions. Our financial team of Marc Goldin, Susan Levenstein and Tony Kravitz have not only maintained our books and accounts, but have kept the Board focused on the budget; they deserve much of the credit for the two essentially balanced budgets we have enjoyed during these very challenging financial times. And our Immediate Past President, Hal Hurwitz, has served both as a mentor and advisor to me personally, and as a voice of wisdom and experience to the Board as a whole.

CBI has benefitted from an outstanding team of program Vice Presidents this past year. Leading Ways & Means, Johanna Rose and Daryl Spector have succeeded in generating much needed revenue for the shul while at the same time providing us opportunities to socialize and bond as a community. Daveen Meyers and Nanci Patchen have led our Membership efforts and helped our community grow. Our Education VPs, Francine Wenhardt and Susan Don, have strengthened our religious school. As our Youth VPs, Annie Shugarman and Terry Ginsburg have enhanced an already great USY program. Scott Cross and Wendy Kottmeier have helped maintain our CDC as one of the best preschools in the county. Our Ritual VPs, Bonnie Wideman and Eric Dangott, have worked behind the scenes to ensure that our religious services run smoothly. As our Housing VPs, Jane Flynn and Hank Klein have stretched their budgeted funds to keep our facility in good shape. Our Publicity VPs, Margot Shapiro and Andrea Alfi, have kept CBI's name in the public, both in print and in electronic media. Our Social Action VPs, Marla Nathan and Michelle Madick, have coordinated volunteers for the Blood Drive, Sunday Supper and Family Promise. And, while they don't hold official offices, two Board members deserve special mention—Ken Cowan for maintaining our computers and IT system, and Batia Swed for organizing our Shabbat greeter program.

The synagogue has been fortunate to have a General Board comprised of dedicated congregants who work together in a cooperative, congenial manner. Thanks go to Phyllis Abrams, Michael Adler, Ann Bendroff, Sarah Brenner, Esther Dosick, Heather Katz, Howard Mirowitz and Muriel Ullman, for addressing all of the business and policy issues that have confronted CBI over the past year. While our discussions have been spirited on occasion, they have always been civil, as the Board approached each issue in the spirit of cooperation and the best interests of the shul. And the synagogue owes a special debt to Jean Kravitz who, while not formally a Board member, diligently and expertly publishes our Shofar.

One of the great privileges of serving as President has been the opportunity to work closely with our professional staff. Through my regular meetings, phone calls and emails with Rabbi Spitz and Cantor Tilchin, and I've developed an even greater appreciation for their knowledge, insights, commitment and compassion. We are so very fortunate to have Executive Director Sandy Klein, CDC Director Lisa Heller, Education Director Robin Hoffman, and Youth Director Barbara Sherman, whose talents show in the excellence of our programs. They are supported by our office staff, Helene Coulter and Debbie Hebron, and our custodial staff headed by James Shipp, all of whose efforts ensure that our synagogue runs smoothly.

Lastly, I want to thank the Congregation for the privilege of allowing me to serve our community over the past two years. I appreciate and have benefitted from all of your advice and good wishes; and I have been reminded time and again of just how special, caring and dedicated our congregants are.

I conclude my service as CBI President with confidence that the synagogue will be in good hands. Beth Elster—volunteer extraordinaire, whose four children were all bar and bat mitzvahed at CBI, and whose husband Andy has been one of our shofar blowers—has agreed to serve as President for the next two years. I cannot express how fortunate we are to have someone of Beth's caliber and commitment taking over as President, and I look forward to working with her as we transition in the coming months. And, as I "retire," Lydia, my family and I wish all of you a happy and healthy New Year. ☆

Child Development

Lisa Heller - Director, Certified
Parent Coach
Scott Cross & Wendy Kottmeier, VPs

Early childhood education is the gateway to Jewish Life. Our school introduces children and their families to the joys of Judaism. We provide an environment to encourage and bring young families into the community of the synagogue and the practices and traditions. We not only introduce your children to Jewish culture, the Hebrew language and traditions, but also to an awareness of God.

In our classrooms the teachers design and place materials purposefully throughout the indoor and outdoor environments for the children to ask questions. The teachers listen intently to the children, to discover their interests and ideas and to pose thought-provoking questions. When a butterfly emerges from its chrysalis on a branch in our butterfly garden, the teachers will ask the children, "Where do you suppose the butterfly came from?" Often a discussion regarding God's creatures will ensue.

When we saw a rainbow last week during the extraordinary weather, we talked about God. We use that magical, teachable moment to introduce a Jewish value.

What is best about our school is to hear an 18-month-old child recite the Shema with her little hands covering her eyes or to see a 3-year-old run and get an ice pack to help a friend who skinned his knee or when the four-year-old shouts out in the classroom,

The children taking care of the animals

"We forgot to feed Fergie", (the guinea pig) before he ate his lunch.

God is everywhere at the preschool...we see it in the "Wow" moments the children experience every day. We see it in the toddlers gently collecting eggs from the chickens. We see it in children holding hands, nurturing their gardens, and teaching their parents that being respectful is Kavod. ☆

CANS? BOTTLES? Leave them for USY!

We'll take your cans and plastic water or soda bottles and recycle them! Just leave them in the marked containers left in the Social Hall, Courtyard and USY Lounge!

Bat Mitzvah of Talia Ashley Koblin

October 6, 2012 (20 Tishrei)

Talia is a 6th grader at Pioneer Middle School in Tustin. She has been attending CBI since preschool when she was 2 1/2 years old. Talia loves to sing Jewish songs, has a talent for tap dance and will be entering a performance dance team in the Fall. After having exposure to an organization called Stop Hunger Now in elementary school, she chose to support this organization as her mitzvah project. She exceeded her fundraising goal that will help feed close to 5000 meals to underprivileged kids around the world. She also organized an event with a number of her friends and family to assemble and pack these meals for distribution around the world. Talia looks forward to celebrating the simcha of her bat mitzvah with the congregation, her friends and family. Her brother Joshua, sister Jenna, mom and dad are so very proud of her and her achievement. Mazel Tov! ☆

Bat Mitzvah of Tovia Lee Korisky

October 27, 2012 (11 Heshvan)

Tovia is in seventh grade at Tarbut V' Torah, where she studies Hebrew, Jewish Studies, and many more educational classes. She takes deep pride in her studies because she feels it is extremely important. For her Mitzvah project, Tovia has been spending time making many people smile at Heritage Pointe. She decided to go to Heritage Pointe because she knows how great it feels to see someone smile. At school, Tovia plays basketball and volleyball on the TVT teams. In her spare time, Tovia plays tennis, rides her mint green beach cruiser, sings in her garageband course at TVT, plays with her guinea pig, Butterscotch, and hangs with her friends. Tovia is so thankful for all the support her family, friends, teachers, and mentors have given her! Mazel Tov! ☆

Bat Mitzvah of Jillian Berry

December 8, 2012 (24 Kislev)

Jillian is a 7th grade honors student at Orchard Hills Middle School. Jillian is an avid all-star softball player who also participates on her school's volleyball and basketball teams. Jillian's mitzvah project involves her lifetime love of animals as she collects blankets and bedding for sheltered dogs. Jillian has an affinity for compassion for people of all ages with special needs and has accompanied her mother on home visits throughout her life. Jillian looks forward to celebrating this simcha on her actual birthday as she welcomes her family and friends. Mazel Tov! ☆

Bat Mitzvah of Anastasia Gershenovitz

December 22, 2012 (9 Tevet)

Anastasia is a 7th grader at Pioneer Middle School. She enjoys creating all kinds of art, playing guitar, and swimming. For her mitzvah project, Anastasia has been helping to serve meals with the synagogue's Sunday Supper program. Anastasia looks forward to celebrating this special time with her parents, her brother Ryan, as well as extended family and friends. Mazel Tov! ☆
