Rabbi's Message

Rabbi Elie Spitz

Sabbatical Planning with Great Talent

CBI's staff is an all-star team. We recently met to discuss the plans for my Sabbatical. As I looked around the table, I was reminded of the stability, creativity, and dedication of each member.

Sandy Klein, our executive director, has masterfully tended to the myriad details of CBI administration for the past sixteen years, having joined five years before as a member. She is our first full time executive director. A Social Worker by training she relates to members and fellow staff with genuine care and competence. Sandy also holds a Master of Public Administration enabling her and our administrative staff to efficiently meet our congregants' needs.

Helene Coulter is our operations manager. Helene grew up at Temple Sharon and has taught in our religious school for 11 years. A CBI member for close to a decade before accepting the bookkeeping portfolio, she has expanded her role over the ensuing decade to include computer trouble-shooting, B'nai Mitzvah coordination (including Davener's Clinic), finalizing service participation and so much more at her talented initiative.

Ana Cottle is our operations specialist for close to three years. Ana grew up in our religious school, celebrating her bat mitzvah at CBI. She attended Cal Berkeley, where she graduated with honors in Comparative Literature and Judaic Studies. She is the welcoming voice over the phone and creatively manages our social media, prepares our synagogue mailings, and provides administrative support.

Rabbi Robin Foonberg will begin her seventh year as our synagogue educator. Her primary responsibility is guiding our religious school. In recent years she re-envisioned our Hebrew High program and co-initiated county-wide Israel education for teens called "Knowledge for College." She serves on the national board of Synagogue Educators, having co-hosted the annual gathering last year in Los Angeles. Ordained as a Rabbi four years ago at the Academy for Jewish Religion in LA, she also fills in when needed at congregant funerals and works with our b'nai mitzvah families. Rabbi Foonberg guides a talented religious school staff of caring teachers.

Barbara Sherman has served as our Youth Director for 27 years and continues to have a rare gift for mentoring youth. Once again this year, our USY chapter won the coveted Chapter of Excellence, identifying our chapter as a model for the 40 chapters in our five-state region. To watch our USY teens lead Friday night services or participate in our third Shabbat of the month morning service is to have goosebumps. This year Barbara will mark 20 years of Camp B'nai Ruach, the wonderful summer day camp that she initiated and so capably runs.

Sharon Alkin directs our Child Development Center. She previously served in the classroom with our oldest preschoolers. Before coming to CBI she directed a preschool in Los Angeles. She too, is enormously well organized and brings genuine warmth and common sense to managing her staff and meeting the needs of our children and their families. Sharon guides and nurtures her diverse, warm, cooperative team of preschool teachers.

Nancy Cedar, with a degree in business from Cal State Fullerton, is the Administrative Assistant to the Child Development Center for the past 17 years. Her husband, Carl Cedar, a music producer at Disneyland, leads services regularly on Friday nights and Junior Congregation on Saturdays, helps lead our annual seder, and teaches Jewish music in our religious school.

There are so many others who work behind the scenes to insure excellence at CBI:

Luis Garcia is our Facility Manager for close to three years while attending Santa Ana College with a focus on engineering. He is amazing on the computer, including production of our videos. This summer he and his younger sister will serve as counselors at Camp B'nai Ruach.

Maria Rodriguez has managed our kitchen for close to 14 years. We have lunch after each morning service and wonderful Shabbat dinners. Maria's staff works cooperatively to produce varied, tasty food and home-baked cakes.

Miguel Rodriguez, Maria's husband, is our custodian, who with great reliability keeps our facility clean and in order.

Sabbatical planning is a partnership between our staff and board leaders. In particular, our current president, Tony Kravitz, and Beth Elster, a former president, have prepared a grid of all synagogue needs and are mapping out coverage, including each Shabbat and holiday. As Tony says, the Sabbatical year is an opportunity for the synagogue to also experiment and grow. Among the guest rabbis are Adam Greenwald (14 visits) and Micah Hyman (six), each with a national reputation for dynamic preaching. Tony, Beth, and I have met with our prayer leader and teacher, Amy Robinson Katz, to explore ways to increase musicality and energy in our services. Rabbi Foonberg will play an active role as part of the team for lifecycle events and pastoral care. We are blessed with a strong comfort Hessed Committee, including many "buddies" and a synagogue nurse.

Mark Twain said, "It usually takes more than three weeks to prepare a good impromptu speech" In that light, please know that there is much preparation going on to ensure that CBI remains vibrant and responsive during my Sabbatical. But most importantly, the trustworthiness of our quality staff - coupled with an experienced, talented board and committed community of congregants - ensures a synagogue of excellence for many years to come. ☆

He was "in the room where it happened" in peace negotiations between Israel and her neighbors during the past two decades.

James Baker, President George Bush's (41) Secretary of State, commented on Ross' Doomed to Succeed (2015), "a must read for anyone interested in the US-Israel relationship."

Similarly, Tom Donilon, National Security Advisor to President Obama has said, "an unparalleled combination of careful scholar and practitioner...No US diplomat has known the key policy makers in the Middle East for as long as or as well as Ross."

Come and hear Dennis Ross' first-hand account of why peace has eluded Israel and what is possible looking forward.

Bat Mitzvah of Gabrielle Zimerman

July 18, 2017 (24 Tamuz) Israel

Gabrielle is in the 7th grade at El Rancho Charter School in Anaheim Hills where she has earned consecutive spots on the Principal's Honor Roll throughout the entire 2016-2017 academic year. Gabrielle excels in both Science and Math, but she definitely has a creative arts side as well. This year her electives at school included photo shop and choir. In choir, Gabrielle took to the stage in two small productions at school and really enjoyed herself. Outside of school Gabrielle's love of animals keeps her very busy. She has two cats, a bunny, a hamster and a dog. Her Bat Mitzvah project was a testament to her commitment to the welfare of animals: she baked and sold homemade dog and cat treats and made several blankets suitable for animals. She will be donating the money she has earned to the ASPCA, a charity she had previously been contributing to financially on a monthly basis. Gabrielle has also been hard at work preparing for her overseas Bat Mitzvah this summer, tutoring on a weekly and bi weekly basis to ensure she has her Torah portion down pat! While only her parents will accompany her to Israel, she is looking forward to streaming her Bat Mitzvah to both her family and friends in the United States. Mazal Tov!

Bat Mitzvah of Maya Boiarsky

August 5, 2017 (13 Av)

Maya recently promoted from Santiago Hills Elementary School and will be starting 7th grade at Sierra Vista Middle School in the fall. Maya enjoys playing soccer. She plays on an LA Galaxy OC club team in her favorite position of goalie. For her Bat Mitzvah project, she volunteered with ICARE dog rescue, helping place dogs in secure and loving homes. Maya plans to continue volunteering with ICARE and in the fall, she will also do community service projects with Assisteens. Maya is a blue belt in Krav Maga and is part of the Junior Instructor Program at Krav Maga of Orange County. Maya has been a member of the CBI community since she started at the CBI preschool when she was four months old. Maya is excited to be having her Bat Mitzvah with her parents, Janine and Yuri, siblings, Victoria and Jacob, family from near and far, friends and CBI community. Mazal Tov!

Bar Mitzvah of Joshua Hovav

August 26, 2017 (4 Elul)

Joshua is attending Plaza Vista school in Irvine. He loves taking care of his pets which include a bearded dragon lizard named "Lenny" and our sweet dog, "Lola". His pastimes include reading books, playing video games on his computer and exploring new hiking trails with his family. Joshua's mitzvah project is to volunteer helping to feed the homeless at Sunday Supper. Mazal Tov!

Bat Mitzvah of Lily Cowan

September 2, 2017 (11 Elul)

Lily is heading into 7th grade at Tarbut V'Torah, and enjoys science, art and music. Lily's hobbies include: tennis, movies, singing, and playing the ukulele. Lily's mitzvah project involves her passion for helping kids and their families who are affected by cancer. Specifically, she will be volunteering for the Jessie Rees Foundation whose mission is to: ensure every kid fighting cancer has the support to Never Give Up. Lily is looking forward to celebrating her Bat Mitzvah with family and friends from near and far. Mazal Tov!
